

Little Bells...

... your weekly update to The Chimes

This Sunday

Matthew 22:1-14
What Are You Wearing?

Adult CE, Kemper Parlor 8:45-10:00

Doug Frank and Karen Simpson are co-leading a five-week study of the book of Ephesians through Sunday, October 22.

Stewardship Letters

Stewardship letters were mailed to the congregation this week. Please contact the office if you did not receive yours, or if you have any questions.

Reformation Sunday is October 29

Celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation and our Scottish Presbyterian Heritage with bagpipes, tartans, and a special message from our General Presbyter of the Cincinnati Presbytery, the Reverend Dr. Nancy Kahaian. If you would like to carry a tartan please see Terri Neuenschwander.

October Session Meeting

The session will meet after Worship on this Sunday. Members of the session will be available in the Gathering Room during Coffee Hour before Worship for conversation and to answer any questions. If you have an item that you wish to add on to the Session meeting agenda, please submit a written communication to the Clerk of Session, Bertie Spicker, at bhspicker@yahoo.com.

Deacons

College and Military Lists

The Deacons are updating their lists of college and military family members. Please email Jennifer Mathis at jmathis64@yahoo.com or call 513-620-7212 with new additions/updates to mailing addresses. In November we will honor members of our congregation who have served. Please notify Jennifer to include a veteran to be honored.

Meals for the Reeseys

Sue Poulos is coordinating meals for the Reesey family. If you wish to help, please contact Sue, or you may sign up by visiting TakeThemAMeal.com and searching by recipient last name (Reesey) and password (2639). Notes: Marie requests that meals be delivered by 5:30 and prepared so as to be ready to be put on the table; they list an allergy to fish/shellfish.

Thanksgiving Baskets

The Deacons will collect donations for Thanksgiving Baskets for families in the community in need. Please find, in the pews, envelopes for financial donations or look for the grocery list in the Gathering Room to sign up to bring specific food items.

Aluminum Can Pull Tabs for Ronald McDonald House

Nancy Pacey will be making a trip soon to the Ronald McDonald House to drop off a 5 pound bucket of the pop can pull tabs. If you have been saving these tabs, please bring them in to the container in the Gathering Room. This is such a wonderful and easy way to help a good cause. The Ronald McDonald House is a "home away from home:" for families with sick children. Thank you and please continue to save the tabs.

New MPC Book Club

Monday, October 16, at 7:00 pm at the home of Karen Simpson (11909 Millstone Court), will be the inaugural meeting of the MPC Book Club. Our first book will be Rethink How You Think: How to Create Lasting Change Today by Dr. David Stoop. In addition to discussing this book, our first meeting will determine the group format and book selections for the future, so please join us; we'd love to get your input! For questions, contact Karen Simpson at karenanddance@gmail.com or 513-374-1025.

Dine Around October 21

Fellowship's Dine Around Night will be Saturday, October 21. Sign up in the Gathering Room if you can attend, and indicate what you will bring to share. For questions, see Kami Mitchell.

Volunteer for MPC's New Partnership with Montgomery Farmers' Market

MPC will begin a new partnership with Montgomery Farmers' Market this fall, hosting their winter market November 4, 11 and 18, December 2, 9, 16, 23 from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall. To volunteer or learn more, contact Dave Dickey, 513-479-1137.

Sycamore Flight Fest

Sycamore's annual Flight Fest is Saturday, October 21. Once again MPC will sponsor a water station for their race, whose course goes right past MPC. To volunteer for the water station, contact Kay Sadler.

Mission

Our work dates for the season are complete, but we are still responsible for providing lunch for Saturday, October 14. To help, contact Kay Sadler.

In October, we are collecting socks and underwear for the teenagers at Lighthouse Youth Services.
